Introduction

The will of the Pueblo of Pojoaque is expressed only through its Tribal Council (collectively comprised of a General Council and a Regular Council). The General Council is the highest authority within the Pueblo. The General Council meets once every two years or at the call of the Governor and is composed of all enrolled members over the age of 18. All General Council members may vote on issues before the General Council. Every two years, on even-numbered years, the General Council elects the Tribal Officials. The Tribal Officials are the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary, and Treasurer. The Tribal Officials are responsible for the day-to-day operations and are the external representatives of the Pueblo. The General Council has given the Regular Council the authority to make decisions on its behalf; however, these decisions can be reconsidered by the General Council.

The Regular Council is responsible for passing resolutions, setting policy and making decisions between meetings of the General Council. The Regular Council currently meets every first and third Thursday of each month and any enrolled member over the age of 18 may attend. The Governor presides over all Tribal Council meetings.

The Pueblo of Pojoaque Law and Order Code is enacted pursuant to the inherent sovereign tribal powers expressly delegated to the Regular Council, which is authorized to promulgate and enforce law and ordinances providing for the maintenance of law and order and the administration of justice within the Pueblo's jurisdiction and on Pueblo lands; to administer and protect Pueblo lands and property; to exclude individuals not legally entitled to remain thereon; to regulate the conduct of trade and the use and disposition of property; to engage in economic activities that will promote the health, peace, morals, education, and welfare of the Pueblo and its Members and their families; and to perform other routine governmental functions.

The Pueblo of Pojoaque Law and Order Code in its entirety was originally approved by the Tribal Council on or around March 1, 1983 and re-codified on December 19, 2013. The Code is a systematic collection of the Pueblo's laws arranged by subject matter. Subsequent to its original enactment, the Tribal Council has amended or changed various sections of the Code through the passage of Resolutions.

An updated version of the 2013 Law and Order Code is released each year. This 2018 version of the Pueblo of Pojoaque Law and Order Code incorporates additions, amendments, and revisions of the Pueblo's laws as of September 30, 2018. Individuals should consult the Law and Order Code Supplement concerning ordinances and Resolutions passed subsequent to that date.

Introduction

The will of the Pueblo of Pojoaque is expressed only through its Tribal Council (collectively comprised of a General Council and a Regular Council). The General Council is the highest authority within the Pueblo. The General Council meets once every two years or at the call of the Governor and is composed of all enrolled members over the age of 18. All General Council members may vote on issues before the General Council. Every two years, on even-numbered years, the General Council elects the Tribal Officials. The Tribal Officials are the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary, and Treasurer. The Tribal Officials are responsible for the day-to-day operations and are the external representatives of the Pueblo. The General Council has given the Regular Council the authority to make decisions on its behalf; however, these decisions can be reconsidered by the General Council.

The Regular Council is responsible for passing resolutions, setting policy and making decisions between meetings of the General Council. The Regular Council currently meets every first and third Thursday of each month and any enrolled member over the age of 18 may attend. The Governor presides over all Tribal Council meetings.

The Pueblo of Pojoaque Law and Order Code is enacted pursuant to the inherent sovereign tribal powers expressly delegated to the Regular Council, which is authorized to promulgate and enforce law and ordinances providing for the maintenance of law and order and the administration of justice within the Pueblo's jurisdiction and on Pueblo lands; to administer and protect Pueblo lands and property; to exclude individuals not legally entitled to remain thereon; to regulate the conduct of trade and the use and disposition of property; to engage in economic activities that will promote the health, peace, morals, education, and welfare of the Pueblo and its Members and their families; and to perform other routine governmental functions.

The Pueblo of Pojoaque Law and Order Code in its entirety was originally approved by the Tribal Council on or around March 1, 1983 and re-codified on December 19, 2013. The Code is a systematic collection of the Pueblo's laws arranged by subject matter. Subsequent to its original enactment, the Tribal Council has amended or changed various sections of the Code through the passage of Resolutions.

An updated version of the 2013 Law and Order Code is released each year. This 2018 version of the Pueblo of Pojoaque Law and Order Code incorporates additions, amendments, and revisions of the Pueblo's laws as of September 30, 2018. Individuals should consult the Law and Order Code Supplement concerning ordinances and Resolutions passed subsequent to that date.

(b) Limited Entry of Appearance; Attorney's Duty. In all proceedings where an attorney appears for a client in a limited manner, that attorney shall disclose to the Court the scope of representation. The purpose of this rule is to permit attorneys to appear for clients in a limited manner and to alert the Court and opposing party of that limited role. Attorneys may give technical assistance and, when not prohibited, may prepare, without attribution, papers for filing by a self-represented litigant without violating the duty of candor. Even though an attorney's role may be limited to drafting a single document, the attorney is, however, bound by all of the rules that govern attorney conduct.

(c) Telephonic Hearing. An attorney may file a Motion for Telephonic Hearing with the Pueblo of Pojoaque Tribal Court, provided the motion is filed with the Court at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the scheduled hearing. The decision to grant or deny the motion shall be in the sole discretion of the Court.

(d) Organization. Attorneys shall be on time, be prepared for all court appearances and have knowledge of the Pueblo of Pojoaque Law and Order Code, Court Rules, Rules of Evidence, and Rules of Procedure.

(e) Respect. Attorneys shall always be courteous and respectful to the Court and opposing parties.

(f) Compliance with Rules of Professional Conduct of Other Jurisdictions in which Attorney is Licensed to Practice. Attorneys shall be in compliance with the rules of professional conduct in all jurisdictions in which the attorney is licensed to practice.

(g) Candor Toward the Tribunal. Attorneys should be candid with the Court and should attempt to resolve, by agreement, differences relating to procedural and discovery matters. An attorney shall not knowingly:

1. Make a false statement of fact or law to the Court or fail to correct a false statement of material fact or law previously made to the Court;
2. Fail to disclose to the Court legal authority known to the attorney to be directly adverse to the position of the client and not disclosed by opposing counsel; or
3. Offer evidence that the attorney knows to be false; if an attorney, the attorney's client or witness has offered material evidence and the attorney comes to know of its falsity, the attorney shall take reasonable remedial measures, including, if necessary, disclosure to the tribunal.

(h) Attorneys shall discourage and decline to participate in litigation that is without merit or is designed primarily to harass or drain the financial resources of the opposing party or the Pueblo of Pojoaque Tribal Court.

(i) Attorneys should avoid any communication, direct or indirect, about a pending case with a judge except as permitted by court rules or otherwise authorized by law.

(j) Attorneys should refrain from impugning the integrity of the judicial system, its proceedings, or its members. Failure to comply with the requirements of these rules may subject counsel to sanctions.

Such record shall reflect the title of the case, the names and addresses of parties and witnesses, the substance of the complaint, the date of the hearing or trial by whom conducted, the finding of the Tribal Court or jury, and judgment or order entered. The Tribal Court Clerk may act on behalf of the Tribal Court and issue subpoenas which have been signed by a Judge and which are to be served within the exterior boundaries of the Pueblo of Pojoaque.

(b) A subpoena shall bear the signature of the Chief Judge or an Associate Judge of the Tribal Court and it shall state the name of the evidence or witness to be subpoenaed, the title of the proceeding and the place where the witness is to appear or the evidence is to be produced.

F-4 Witness Fees

(a) The Court, in its sole discretion, may order a party to reimburse witnesses for testifying in a case.

(b) Any witness fees and expenses shall be paid to the witness upon completion of the trial. Such expenses may be taxed as costs against the defendant if he or she is found guilty; provided, however, that no defendant shall be incarcerated solely because of inability to pay such costs immediately.

F-5 Trial Procedures

(b) The Tribal Court shall not be bound by common law rules of evidence, or the rules of evidence which pertain in state or federal courts.

F-6            Jury Trials

(a) Request for Jury Required. A jury trial shall be held if not otherwise specifically prohibited by the Law and Order Code and:

1. Requested by either party in a civil case; or
2. Requested by the defendant in a criminal case where imprisonment is a possible penalty for the offense charged.

(b) Jury Pool. A list of eligible jurors shall be prepared and maintained by the Tribal Council or its representative. Any person over the age of twenty-one (21) years, not subject to judicial restraint by any Court, and who resides within the Pueblo of Pojoaque may be listed as an eligible juror.

(c) Formation. Juries will be comprised of six (6) jurors and one alternate. A person may be excused from serving on a jury upon good cause shown under oath to a Judge. Jurors whose employers provide for compensated leave for jury service shall not be excused by the Court because of work-related responsibilities, except under extraordinary circumstances. The Judge shall consider the needs of the Court to maintain an adequate jury pool before allowing jurors to be excused. Elected Tribal Officials shall be exempt from serving on juries during their terms of office.

(d) Random Selection. The Clerk of the Court will randomly select a minimum of twenty-five (25) names from the jury pool pursuant to a jury pool records maintenance schedule.

(e) Juror Summons. The Court shall issue summons and thereby notify persons selected for jury service. Persons selected for jury service shall be summoned by mail or personal service. Persons who do not appear after proper notice of jury service shall be subject to contempt of Court.

(f) Selection. The Court Clerk shall notify the Court and counsel of the names of the members of the jury pool appearing for selection. In selecting a jury from among the panel members, in all instances the Judge shall conduct the initial questioning of the jurors to establish eligibility, ability to serve and potential bias. When the Court determines that a juror cannot serve, the juror shall be excused. The Judge may use his or her discretion to permit the parties to ask questions and, moreover, may limit examination of jurors when the Judge believes such examination to be improper or unacceptably time consuming.

(g) Challenges/Excusals. Each party shall have the right to a maximum of two (2) preemptory challenges for jurors, for which no reason need be given and which the Judge may not refuse to grant.

(h) Compensation of Jurors. Every person who is required to attend Court for selection or service as a juror shall be entitled to fees for each day, unless otherwise compensated through Tribal ordinance. Jurors whose employers provide for compensated leave for jury service shall not be entitled to fees. Jurors shall be compensated at a rate recommended by the Tribal Judge and provided in the rules of the court. Compensation of jurors is considered to be a court cost that shall become the responsibility of the party requesting a jury.

(i) Juror Oath. The jury shall be sworn in by the Court. Any juror who violates the oath may be held in contempt of Court.

(j) Juror Instructions and Deliberations. The Judge shall instruct the jury with regard to the applicable law and the jury shall decide all questions of fact in the basis of that law. The jury shall deliberate in secret and return a verdict of “guilty” or “not guilty.” The Tribal Judge shall render judgment in accordance with the jury verdict. A jury may render a verdict by majority vote in civil cases. In criminal cases a verdict of “guilty” must be either unanimous or by vote of five (5) to one (1).

(k) Discharging Jurors. When the jury has reached a verdict or has determined that it shall be unable to do so, even with additional deliberation, the Court shall discharge the jurors from service.

F-7 Contempt of Court

(a) The Judges of the Pueblo Courts may rule a person in contempt of Court if he willfully and unjustifiably disrupts, obstructs or otherwise interferes with the due and orderly course of proceedings in the courtroom, after being advised by the Court to cease the interference.

(b) All rulings of and sentences for contempt shall be announced immediately after the acts of contempt occur.

(c) A person found in contempt of court may be sentenced to imprisonment for a period not to exceed three hundred and sixty-five days (365) days or to pay a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), or both.

F-8 Notice Code

(a) Findings and Purpose.

1. Findings. The Pueblo has a compelling interest in protecting tribal sovereignty and jurisdiction and the validity of tribal laws. Tribal sovereignty and jurisdiction or the validity of tribal law may be questioned in cases in the Tribal Court in which the Pueblo or any political subdivision, department, agency, instrumentality, subsidiary, officer, employee and/or legal entity of any nature whatsoever of the Pueblo is not a party. With adequate, timely, and uniform notice of cases in the Tribal Court that question tribal sovereignty and jurisdiction or the validity of tribal law, the Pueblo can effectively assess whether and how to participate in such cases.

2. Purpose. The purpose of this Code is to provide the Pueblo with adequate, timely, and uniform notice of any and all cases in the Tribal Court that question tribal sovereignty and jurisdiction or the validity of any tribal law and in which the Pueblo or any political subdivision, department, agency, instrumentality, subsidiary, officer, employee and/or legal entity of any nature whatsoever of the Pueblo is not a party.

(b) Notice Required.

1. Court to Inform Parties. In any action or proceeding in which the Pueblo or any political subdivision, department, agency, instrumentality, subsidiary, officer, employee and/or legal entity of any nature whatsoever of the Pueblo is not a party but which questions tribal sovereignty or jurisdiction or the validity of any tribal law, the Tribal Court will give notice in writing of the action or proceeding to the Office of the Governor and to the Legal Department. The Tribal Court will also serve all parties with a copy of the notice given. Such notice will identify the action or proceeding and will include a brief written explanation of the grounds upon which tribal sovereignty or jurisdiction or the validity of tribal law is being questioned. Any party giving notice under this law will simultaneously file proof with the Tribal Court that notice has been given as required by this Code.

2. Continued Notice. If notice is required under this Code, the Tribal Court or any party will timely serve copies of all subsequent filings and orders in the case on the Legal Department.

(c) Manner and Timing of Notice. Notice required under this Code will be given in writing and simultaneously with the raising of a question about tribal sovereignty or jurisdiction or the validity of any tribal law.

(d) Tribal Participation Following Notice.

1. Intervention. Upon timely motion, the Pueblo may intervene as a matter of right in any action or proceeding in the Tribal Court that questions tribal sovereignty or jurisdiction or the validity of any tribal law. Upon intervening under this Code, the Pueblo may assert any and all available claims and defenses and may present any and all admissible evidence relating to the question of its sovereignty or jurisdiction or the validity of any tribal law, and is entitled to the same relief, including costs, as if the Pueblo had instituted a separate action or proceeding; provided that, the Pueblo will not be required to pay costs of litigation in any action or proceeding in which it has intervened under this Code. Intervention under this Code does not abridge, limit, or otherwise affect the right of the Pueblo to commence, maintain, defend, or otherwise intervene in actions or proceedings in the Tribal Court.

2. Amicus Curiae. Upon timely motion or application, the Tribe may appear as amicus curiae (friend of the court) in any action or proceeding that questions tribal sovereignty or jurisdiction or the validity of any tribal law.

3. Information Sharing and Consultation. In any action or proceeding in the Tribal Court that questions tribal sovereignty or jurisdiction or the validity of any tribal law in which the Pueblo does not intervene or appear as amicus curiae, the Pueblo may nevertheless share important knowledge with any party involved in the action or proceeding. This could include assistance in responding to formal discovery requests or acting as an informal consultant.

4. No Participation. The Pueblo may timely determine that it is in the best interest of the Pueblo not to intervene, appear as amicus curiae, or otherwise participate in an action or proceeding in the Tribal Court that questions tribal sovereignty or jurisdiction or the validity of any tribal law.

5. Authority to Determine Participation. Before determining participation on behalf of the Pueblo under this Code in any specific action or proceeding in Tribal Court, the Chief Legal Counsel will obtain the approval of the Governor and of the Tribal Council for cases involving challenges to tribal sovereignty.

6. Timeliness of Participation Determinations. Unless the Tribal Court orders otherwise, where timely and proper notice has been given under this Code, the Pueblo will notify the Tribal Court and parties in writing within sixty (60) days of receipt by the Pueblo of such notice of any determination to participate in any action or proceeding by way of intervention or appearance as amicus curiae.

(e) Failure to Give Notice.

1. Failure to Give Notice Not Jurisdictional or Waiver of Rights. The failure of the Tribal Court or a party to give notice as required by this Code does not deprive the Tribal Court of jurisdiction and is not a waiver or modification of any rights otherwise timely asserted by any party. Any notice given under this Code is not a substitute for, or a waiver or a modification of, any other pleading requirement under tribal law.

2. Late Notice. If the Tribal Court or a party discovers that notice to the Pueblo under this law should have been but has not been given, the Tribal Court or party will promptly give notice in writing to the Pueblo as required by this Code. The Tribal Court may stay the action or proceeding at any stage to allow compliance with this Code. If final judgment has already been entered, the Pueblo may motion or apply for rehearing as of right, the Tribal Court will entertain promptly any such motions or applications for rehearing by the Pueblo, and in disposing of such motions the Tribal Court, for good cause shown, may vacate a judgment or any portion thereof.

3. Civil Sanctions. The Tribal Court may impose civil sanctions on any party for willful or unreasonable failure to give notice as required by this Code, and may use other reasonable means to cure any significant harm caused by failure to give notice as required by this Code.

(f) Tribal Jurisdiction and Sovereign Immunity from Suit Unaffected.

1. Jurisdiction. Nothing in this Code shall be deemed or construed to deprive, limit, or extend the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court.

2. Sovereign Immunity from Suit. Notice required under this Code does not authorize a party to name the Pueblo or any political subdivision, department, agency, instrumentality, subsidiary, officer, employee and/or legal entity of any nature whatsoever of the Pueblo as a party to any action or proceeding. Nothing in this Code shall be deemed or construed as a waiver or limitation of the sovereign immunity from suit of the Pueblo or any political subdivision, department, agency, instrumentality, subsidiary, officer, employee and/or legal entity of any nature whatsoever of the Pueblo.

Subpart G Rules of Civil Procedure

G-1 Scope of Rules; Construction; Alternate Source

(a) Scope. These rules govern the procedure in all civil actions and proceedings in the Tribal Court. These rules must be applied to resolve disputes efficiently, reveal the truth, and treat all parties fairly and without prejudice. All cases before the Tribal Court will be conducted in accordance with the Law and Order Code and Pueblo of Pojoaque customs and traditions. These rules apply in criminal matters when no different rule is specified in the Rules of Criminal Procedure contained in Subpart H of the Code.

(b) Mission of the Court. The mission of the Tribal Court is to be fair and unbiased, resolve disputes, maintain rights, and correct wrongs for all cases brought before the Court. Through Tribal laws, rules of court, case law, Tribal custom and common sense in the context of all relevant circumstances, the Pueblo seeks to deal justly in order to protect all inherent rights of the parties.

(c) Construction. These rules will be liberally interpreted and administered to secure a just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action. At every stage of the proceeding, the Court may disregard any technical failure to comply with these rules which does not substantively affect the rights of the parties or outcome of the proceedings.

(d) Alternate Source for Rules. In a situation where these rules do not contain a procedure, the parties and the Court may agree on a procedure, or the Court may determine the procedure that will be followed. The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will apply to any procedures or matters that are not specifically covered in these rules, as long as the Federal Rules do not conflict with these rules or with general principles of fairness and justice as determined and interpreted by the Tribal Court.

(e) Citation Form. These rules shall be known as the Pueblo of Pojoaque Rules of Civil Procedure and will be cited as “PPRCP”.

G-2 Sovereign Immunity

Nothing in these rules shall affect the right of the Pueblo to assert immunity from suit by virtue of its status as a sovereign. The requirements for waivers of sovereign immunity are contained in Subpart J-3.

G-3 Time

(a) How Time is Computed. Whenever a rule or an order requires that an action is taken within a certain number of days:

1. Do not include day of the event that starts the time period;
2. Count every calendar day, including Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays; and

3. Include the last day of the time period, but if the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or Court holiday, the period continues to run until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or Court holiday.

4. Any time period ten (10) days or shorter will not include Saturdays, Sundays, or Court holidays.

(b) Extensions of Time. Upon the request of a party and for good cause, the Court may allow an extension of any time limit described in these rules.

Whenever an attorney represents a party, the attorney will file a written entry of appearance showing the attorney's name, address, and telephone number. For the purpose of this rule, the filing of any pleading or paper signed by counsel and showing the attorney's name, address, and telephone number constitutes an entry of appearance.

(e) Limited Representation. The Tribal Court permits limited-scope representation by a professional attorney according to the standards laid out in Subpart E-4(a)–(b). The attorney shall enter an appearance that outlines the limits of representation.

(f) Sanctions. The Court may impose appropriate sanctions upon an unrepresented party or his or her attorney who is found to have filed a lawsuit, motion, or any other papers for an improper or frivolous purpose such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of litigation. Sanctions may include a fine of up to five hundred dollars ($500), court costs, and attorneys' fees incurred by the opposing party that were required to resolve the issue.

3. A statement describing the rights or laws that the petitioner believes were violated (if known);
4. A statement of what the petitioner is asking the Court to order or decide, such as the approximate amount of money requested, return of property, a restraining order, or a child custody determination; and
5. The signature of the petitioner.

No special wording or format is required but petitioners are encouraged to use the Tribal Court's Petition form. The Court Clerk may help petitioners by supplying necessary forms for filing a Petition.

(b) Summons. When a Petition is filed, the Court Clerk will issue and sign a Summons and give it to Tribal Police to be served on the respondent. The Summons will give notice to the respondent that he or she is required to answer the Petition within a specified time and that failure to respond may result in a default judgment.

G-11 Service and Filing

(a) Service. In order to proceed with the lawsuit, the petitioner must serve (deliver) a copy of the Petition and Summons to each respondent within ninety (90) days of the filing date.

(b) Who may Serve the Papers. Service may be made by a law enforcement officer or any person who is not a party and is eighteen (18) years of age or older.

(c) How Served. The Petition and Summons must be served on the respondent in a way that ensures the respondent knows about the lawsuit and has a reasonable opportunity to defend against it. Service will be made as follows:

1. Personal Service: Service on an individual party or a non-Pueblo business may be made by delivering the documents to the party in person, or on a person over fifteen (15) years old at the party's home or principal place of business. If a person personally refuses to accept service, service shall be deemed performed if the person is informed of the purpose of the service and offered copies of the documents served. The person who delivered the Summons and Petition shall file a statement with the Court that he or she served the papers, stating the name of the person served, the place, date, and time of service, and signing the return of service under penalty of perjury. This is the proof of service.

2. Certified Mail: Service may be made by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, provided that the envelope is addressed to the respondent and that the respondent signs a receipt for it. The return receipt will be proof of service. Service by mail is complete on the date the receipt is signed by the respondent. Service upon a business of the Pueblo must be made by certified mail.

3. Publication: Service by publication may be made for good cause shown upon order of the Court by publishing the contents of the Summons in a local newspaper of general circulation at least once per week for four (4) weeks and by leaving a copy of the Petition with the Court for the party.

(d) Long Arm Service. Any person subject to the jurisdiction of the Pueblo of Pojoaque Tribal Court may be served outside the territorial jurisdiction of the Pueblo in the manner provided and with the same force and effect as if the service had been made within the exterior boundaries of the Pueblo of Pojoaque.

(e) Time for Service. An action may be dismissed without prejudice if service is not completed within ninety (90) days from the date of the filing of the Petition, unless good cause is shown for the delay or as justice requires. The Court's dismissal of the case means that the petition can be brought again but a new Petition will have to be filed and any fees paid previously will not be applicable to the filing of the new case.

(f) Papers other than Petition. A copy of every pleading or document filed with the Court must be provided to the other party or their advocate, unless the Court orders otherwise.

G-12 Pleadings, Motions, and Orders

(a) Pleadings. Petitions, counter-claims, cross-claims, and third-party Petitions are permitted. An Answer must be filed to a Petition, a counter-claim, a cross-claim and a third-party Petition. The Court Clerk may help petitioners by supplying necessary forms for filing a Petition.

(b) Motions. Any requests for the Court to issue an order or take action must be in writing and contain a statement of the events at issue and a statement asking the Court for some relief or a specific order. No technical wording is required. Unrepresented parties are encouraged to use the standard motion form.

(c) Construction of Pleadings. All pleadings will be interpreted so as to do substantial justice.

(d) Orders. An order includes every instruction of the Court whether included in a judgment or not, and may be made with or without notice to adverse parties and may be vacated or modified with or without notice.

G-13 Answering the Petition

(a) Filing an Answer. Within twenty (20) days after the respondent receives a copy of the Petition and Summons, he or she must file a written Answer to the Petition and serve a copy on the petitioner.

1. In any action against the Pueblo or its corporations, businesses, or officers or employees in their official capacities, the respondent shall have sixty (60) days to file a written Answer to the Petition and serve a copy on the petitioner.
2. An extension of time to file an Answer may be granted by the Court upon a showing of good cause.

(b) Signature and Contact Information. The respondent must sign the Answer and provide a mailing address, telephone number, and email address, if applicable.

(c) Defenses and Denials. In the Answer, the respondent will state in short and plain terms his or her defenses to each of the petitioner's claims. The Answer will admit or deny the statements. The respondent may deny a part of a statement and admit the rest. If the respondent does not have knowledge about a statement or claim, he or she will state that. The respondent has a duty to admit what he or she knows is true.

(d) Defenses. If applicable, the respondent must raise the following defenses before filing an Answer:

1. Lack of personal jurisdiction;
2. Insufficient or incomplete Summons and/or Petition; or
3. Insufficient service of Summons and/or Petition.

Any of the above defenses not raised before filing an Answer will be considered waived. If the respondent raises one of these defenses in a motion before filing an Answer, the time-limit to file an Answer will be suspended until the Court has ruled on the motion. The respondent may raise other defenses in the Answer.

(e) Affirmative Defenses. In responding to a pleading, a party should affirmatively state any defense, including (1) accord and satisfaction, (2) arbitration and award, (3) contributory negligence, (4) discharge in bankruptcy, (5) duress, (6) estoppel, (7) failure of consideration, (8) fraud, (9) illegality, (10) laches, (11) license, (12) payment, (13) release, (14) res judicata, (15) statute of frauds, (16) statute of limitations, (17) waiver, and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. If these affirmative defenses are not pled at the time the answer is filed, they may be asserted later with the Court's permission.

(f) Counter-Claim. A respondent may file a counter-claim against the petitioner following the same rules that apply to Petitions. A counter-claim must arise from the same events raised in the Petition. A counter-claim may be deemed waived if not filed as a counter-claim to the Petition.

(g) Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. At any time, but not to delay trial, any party may ask the Court for a judgment on the pleadings. If, in a motion for judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are presented to the Court, the motion will be treated as a Motion for Summary Judgment (Section G-35) and all parties will be given reasonable opportunity to present to the Court all material relevant to a Motion for Summary Judgment.

(h) Default Judgment. The respondent may be subject to a default judgment if he or she does not file an Answer.

G-14 Form of Pleadings

(a) Caption. Every pleading should contain a caption heading including the name of the Court, the title of the action, the Court file number (if known), and a designation as to what kind of pleading it is (e.g., Petition, Answer, Motion). All pleadings will contain the names of the parties. In the case of multiple parties, the name of the first party on each side may be used on all pleadings filed after the original Petition. Unrepresented parties are encouraged to use forms provided by the Court.

(b) Paragraphs. All claims or defenses should be made in numbered paragraphs. Each paragraph should be limited to a statement of a single set of circumstances. Claims or defenses founded upon separate transactions or occurrences should be set forth in separate counts or defenses.

(c) Signatures. The signature of the party, or counsel, must be on a pleading submitted to the Court. The signature is a certification that the pleading is submitted in good faith, that the matters of fact or law are believed to be true and accurate, and that the pleading is based on a reasonable investigation of the statements of fact or law.

(d) Substantial Compliance. For unrepresented parties, or in the interests of justice, substantial compliance with the rules for form of pleadings shall suffice.

G-15 Amending Pleadings; Dismissing Petition

(a) Amending Before Trial. A petitioner may change the Petition without the Court's permission before the respondent files an Answer if a copy of the changed Petition is delivered to all parties according to the Rules for serving Petitions. After the respondent has answered the Petition, the Court may allow the petitioner to amend the Petition if the change would not be unfair to the respondent.

(b) Amending at Trial. When issues or evidence that were not raised in the pleadings are heard at trial, the Court may take such issues or evidence into account without amending the pleadings.

(c) Dismissing the Petition. The Court will allow a petitioner to withdraw the Petition and will dismiss the case at any time the petitioner requests unless the respondent has filed a counter-claim against the petitioner or dismissal of the case would otherwise be unfair to the respondent. The Court may order a petitioner who withdraws a complaint to pay all of the respondent's costs associated with the Petition.

(d) Involuntary Dismissal. If the petitioner fails to prosecute the case or to comply with these rules or a court order, a respondent may move to dismiss the case or any claim. Costs may be assessed against the petitioner.

G-16 Pre-Trial Conferences

The Court may order the attorneys and any unrepresented parties to appear for one or more pre-trial conferences whenever it appears that a conference might simplify the issues, discourage wasteful pre-trial activities, reduce trial time, or promote settlement of the case.

G-17 Parties

(a) Real Party in Interest. Every legal action must be carried out in the name of the real party in interest, except a personal representative or other person in a fiduciary position can sue in his or her own name without joining the party for whose benefit the action is maintained. Real parties in interest may include businesses and other entities.

(b) Guardian Ad Litem. When a minor or incompetent adult who does not have a guardian is a party, the Court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the minor or incompetent person. The guardian ad litem does not have to be a professional attorney.

G-18 Adding Parties to a Case

(a) Joining Parties. To the extent possible, all interested parties, including businesses or other entities, may be joined in a case. Failure to join a party over whom the Court has no jurisdiction will not require dismissal of the case unless it would be impossible to reach a just result without that party. The failure to join a party may be taken into account to assure that justice is served.

(b) Intervention. A party may intervene and be treated as a party in cases where property in which the party has an interest may be affected or a question of law or fact common to a party's claim may be litigated. If a motion to intervene is granted, the other parties are allowed twenty (20) days after service to answer the pleading of the intervener.

(c) Substitution of Parties. If a party dies, becomes incompetent, transfers interest, or separates from some official capacity, a substitute party may be joined or substituted as justice requires.

G-19      Discovery

(a) Purpose of Discovery. The purpose of discovery is to ensure that the parties have access to and share all information and evidence related to a case in order to resolve disputes efficiently and reveal the truth. Each party has an obligation to share all non-privileged information and evidence related to a case.

(b) Scope of Discovery. Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter that is relevant to the case and not privileged, even if the information would not be admissible at trial, so long as the information requested appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

(c) Interrogatories. A party may submit written interrogatories (questions) to any other party who must answer them in writing, under oath, within thirty (30) days.

(d) Depositions. A party may take the oral deposition of an adverse party or non-party witness under oath, giving at least ten (10) days' notice and specifying the time and place of the deposition.

(e) Production, Entry, or Inspection. A party may request that another party produce any documents or things in his or her custody for inspection or copying or request permission to enter and inspect property reasonably related to the case. The opposing party shall reply within ten (10) days as to whether or not such requests will be allowed and if not, why not.

(f) Protective Order. A party against whom discovery is sought may move the Court for a protective order to prevent undue annoyance, harassment, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense. The Court may order that the discovery cease or proceed only upon specified conditions.

(g) Failure to Make Discovery. If a party fails to respond or appear for discovery as provided in this rule, the opposing party may ask the Court for, or the Court on its own motion may issue, an order to compel the other party to perform. The Court may award costs. If a party fails to perform after being ordered to do so by the Court, the Court may, upon motion, order that a certain fact, claim, or defense is deemed established or strike part of a claim or defense, dismiss the case, or, in an aggravated case, render a judgment by default against the non-complying party.

(h) Use of Discovery. Answers to interrogatories and depositions may be used in a motion, hearing, or trial to impeach testimony or for any relevant purpose.

(i) Continuing Duty to Supplement; Witness List. A party is under a continuing duty to supplement responses to discovery requests if the responding party obtains: (1) information that shows a prior response was incorrect or no longer true; (2) the identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable material; (3) the identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at trial; (4) the identity of any other person expected to be called as a witness at trial; and (5) the subject matter or substance on which testimony is expected.

Any witness who is not identified in accordance with this rule will not be allowed to testify except to prevent injustice or upon agreement of the parties.

G-20 Scheduling Cases for Trial

(a) Date for Trial. The Court will place the case on the Court calendar with or without the request of any party as long as all parties are given adequate notice of trial dates.

(b) Postponement. Upon motion of a party and for good cause shown, the Court may postpone (continue) a trial or proceeding. The Court may require the requesting party pay any cost associated with a postponement.

G-21 Consolidation; Separate Trials

(a) Consolidation. The Court may, upon motion of any party or its own motion, order that some or all of the issues of separate actions shall be tried together when there is a common issue of fact or law relating the actions or for judicial economy.

(b) Separate Trials. The Court may order a separate trial of a claim or issue to avoid prejudice or for convenience.

G-22 Evidence

(a) Form and Admissibility. All evidence admissible under the Federal Rules of Evidence or as otherwise specified in the Law and Order Code shall be admissible. The competency of witnesses to testify shall be similarly determined. The Court may admit otherwise inadmissible evidence if the interests of justice so require.

(b) Examination. At all hearings and trials, the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally under oath. A party may call any person to be a witness and examine any witness on any relevant matter. A party may impeach his or her own witness.

Cross examination will be limited to the general scope of direct examination, provided, however, that full examination of all witnesses will be allowed on direct or cross examination to assure complete development of all relevant facts.

The Court may question witnesses to clarify issues and in the interests of justice.

(c) Physical Evidence. Written documents and other physical evidence shall be admitted at the Court's discretion.

G-23 Burden of Proof

In a civil action, the party making the claim must prove his or her case by a preponderance of the evidence. A party shall be considered to have met this burden of proof if the evidence, when considered as a whole, tends to prove that the party's claim is more likely to be true than not true.

G-24 Determination of Foreign Law

A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a foreign jurisdiction, including the State of New Mexico, will give notice in pleadings or other reasonable written notice. The Court, in determining foreign law, may consider any relevant source, including testimony, whether or not submitted by a party or admissible under these rules.

G-25 Subpoenas

(a) Issuance. Subpoenas requiring attendance of witnesses or production of documents or things shall be issued by the Court upon request of a party and served in accordance with Subpart F-2.

(b) Subpoena Unnecessary. A person present in Court without being subpoenaed may be required to testify as if he or she had been subpoenaed.

G-26 Jury Trials

(a) Costs. The party requesting a jury trial is responsible for all costs associated with the jury trial, including juror compensation; however, it may assess costs against a party or parties against whom judgment was rendered in accordance with Subpart J-5.

(b) When Allowed. All civil actions will be decided by the Court without a jury unless a party files a request for a jury trial at the time of the Petition or Answer. The party requesting a jury trial must submit an advance payment, as determined by the Court, by the date Jury Selection begins and all required fees and costs not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the scheduled date of trial. The Tribal Court may, upon good cause shown, waive advance payment of the required fees and costs.

(c) Issues that may be Tried. A party requesting a jury trial may specify the issues to be decided by the jury. Any other party may specify, not less than five (5) days before the date scheduled for trial, any other issues he or she wishes to be decided by the jury. Once a party requests that an issue be decided by a jury, the jury request may not be withdrawn without the consent of the other party or parties.

(d) Designation by Judge. The Court may, upon its own motion, order the trial by jury of any or all of the factual issues. The Court may, upon motion of any party or its own initiative, find that some or all of the issues designated for jury trial should not be tried by a jury, and order that no jury trial be held on those issues.

(e) Waiver of Right to Jury. The Court may hear and decide any issues without a jury if either party fails to appear at trial, regardless of any request made for a jury trial.

G-27 Jurors

(a) Choosing the Jury. Juries will be chosen in accordance with the Law and Order Code, Subpart F-6.

(b) Discharge of Juror. If, after the proceedings begin, a juror becomes unable or disqualified to perform his or her duty, an alternate juror will take the place of the discharged juror. If there is no alternate juror, the parties may agree to complete the action with the remaining jurors.

(c) Separation of the Jury. When the jurors are allowed to leave the courtroom during a trial, the Court will instruct them not to converse with or listen to anyone about the trial and will tell them not to form or express an opinion on the case until they begin deliberations.

(d) Deliberation. Once the case is submitted, the jury will deliberate in private.

(e) Things Taken by Jury. When deliberating, the jury may take with them: the Court's instructions; papers or things entered into evidence as exhibits; and any notes taken by the jurors themselves during trial.

(f) Additional Instructions. If the jury has a question after deliberation begins, the jury may request additional instructions in writing from the Court. Any interaction between the Court and the jury must be on the record, after notice to the parties.

(g) Declaration of the Verdict. When a majority of the jurors in a civil case agrees on a verdict, the jury shall inform the Court. The jury shall be taken into the courtroom; the verdict shall be given in writing to the Court and read aloud by the Court. The Court will ask the jury foreperson whether this is the verdict. Either party may have the jury polled to determine if such is, in fact, each juror's verdict. If insufficient jurors agree with the verdict, the jury shall be sent out again to reconsider; otherwise, the verdict is complete and the jury shall be dismissed.

(h) No Verdict. If the jury is discharged before rendering the verdict, or is for any reason prevented from giving a verdict, the action may be retried.

G-28 Special Verdicts

The Court may require the jury to return the verdict in the form of specific findings on specified issues or may require the jury to return a general verdict accompanied by answers to questions related to the issues under consideration.

G-29 Instructions to the Jury

(a) Requests. At the close of the evidence, or at any earlier time as directed by the Court, any party may file written, requested instructions for the Court to give to the jury.

(b) Instructions. Outside the presence of the jury, the Court will inform the parties of the instructions it intends to give the jury. Parties will be given the opportunity to object to the instructions on the record and outside the hearing of the jury.

G-30 Directed Verdict; Judgment as a Matter of Law; Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict

(a) Motion for a Directed Verdict or Judgment as a Matter of Law. If a party believes that the other party has not met the burden of proof at trial, a motion for directed verdict or judgment as a matter of law may be made any time before the case is submitted to the jury. The motion must specify the law and facts that entitle the party to the judgment.

(b) Motion for Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict. After a verdict, the parties have fifteen (15) days to move for an entry of a judgment notwithstanding the verdict or for a new trial.

G-31 Findings by the Court

In cases tried without a jury, findings of fact and conclusions of law will be made by the Court in support of all final judgments. Within ten (10) days of the entry of judgment, on the Court's own motion or the motion of any party, the findings and judgment may be amended.

G-32 Disability or Disqualification of a Judge

(a) Disability. If a trial or hearing has begun and the judge is unable to proceed, any other judge may proceed with the case upon certifying familiarity with the record and determining that the proceedings in the case may continue without prejudice to the parties. The successor judge may recall any witness.

(b) Disqualification. Whenever a party alleges that the judge has a bias or prejudice, either against such party or in favor of any other party, the judge will determine in his or her discretion whether to proceed any further with the case. The allegation of bias must be filed as soon as practicable after the case has been assigned or the alleged bias or prejudice is known.

G-33 Judgment

(a) Definition. A judgment includes any final order and no special form is required. The Court in a civil action will announce a judgment either orally or in writing after completion of the trial or hearing. All judgments will be reduced to writing, which will include the basis for the decision.

(b) Judgment on Multiple Claims. An order or decision on some claims in a case will not end the action with respect to any other claims until all claims are finally decided. The appeal period will not start to run until all claims are finally decided, unless the Court makes a specific finding otherwise.

(c) Costs. The Court, at its discretion, may award costs as part of the final judgment.

(d) Attorney Fees. The Court may award attorney fees in a case if it reasonably appears that the case was pursued for purposes of harassment only, or that there was no reasonable expectation of success, or in the interests of justice.

In any action where the Pueblo and/or any of its officers or employees are sued for a cause of action arising out of, or in the course of, the performance of a tribal function or duty, or in any action—except by the Pueblo—against the bond of any such officer or employee, if judgment is rendered against the petitioner, the Court shall award a reasonable attorney fee against the losing petitioner and in favor of the Pueblo and/or its officers or employees.

(e) Entry of Judgment. A judgment is complete and will be deemed entered for all purposes when it is signed by the judge and filed with the Court.

G-34      Default

(a) Entry of Default. When a respondent has failed to respond to a Petition and failed to appear in Court after receiving notice, the Court may enter a default on motion of the petitioner. A judgment by default will not be different in kind from, or exceed in amount, that specifically requested in the original demand for judgment.

(b) Judgment by Default. Judgment by default may be entered:

1. If a party's claim is for a sum of money that can be made certain or there is other specific relief that the Court can grant;
2. If the opposing party has been personally served according to these rules; and
3. The Court has personal jurisdiction over the opposing party. Otherwise, judgment by default can be entered by the Court only upon receipt of whatever evidence the Court deems necessary to establish the claim.

No judgment by default shall be entered against the Pueblo.

(c) Setting Aside Default. The Court may, for good cause, set aside a default judgment.

G-35      Summary Judgment

Motions for summary judgment may be supported by affidavits, discovery, or memoranda, which must be made available to opposing parties at least two days prior to a summary judgment hearing.

G-36 New Trials; Amendments of Judgment

(a) Grounds; Time. Any party may move for a new trial on any or all of the issues, for any of the following reasons, by filing a motion within fifteen (15) days after the entry of the verdict or judgment:

1. An error or irregularity that prevented any party from receiving a fair trial;
2. Misconduct of the jury or jury members;
3. Newly discovered evidence that ordinary diligence could not have produced at trial;
4. Damages so excessive or inadequate that they appear to have been given under the influence of passion or prejudice; or
5. Insufficient evidence to justify the judgment or the judgment it is contrary to law.

(b) Harmless Error. The Court will not grant a new trial on the basis of error or irregularity that was harmless, meaning the error did not affect substantial justice.

(c) Support for Motion. Parties may include memoranda or affidavits in support of their motions for a new trial and a responsive pleading will be allowed.

(d) Court Initiative. The Court may, on its own initiative, within fifteen (15) days after entry of judgment, order a new trial based on any permitted grounds and will specify the grounds for ordering a new trial.

(e) Motion To Alter or Amend Judgment. A motion to alter or amend a judgment shall be filed with the Court within fifteen (15) days after entry of the judgment.

(a) Clerical Mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record, and errors arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the Court at any time on its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice as the Court directs.

(b) Mistakes; Newly Discovered Evidence, etc. On motion, the Court may relieve a party from a final judgment or order for the following reasons:

1. Mistake, surprise, or excusable neglect;
2. Newly discovered evidence that by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Section G-36;

3. Fraud, misrepresentation, or other misconduct of the other party;
4. When the Summons in an action has not been served upon the respondent in accordance with Section G-11 and a default judgment was entered;
5. The judgment is void;
6. The judgment was satisfied or discharged or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should apply; or
7. Any other reason justifying relief from the judgment.

(c) The motion for relief from judgment must be filed with the Court within a reasonable time after the judgment became final. The Court has the discretion to determine whether it was filed within a reasonable time. A motion under this rule does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation.

G-38 Harmless Error

No error in either the admission or the exclusion of evidence, and no error or defect in any ruling or order or in anything done or omitted by the Court or by any of the parties, is grounds for granting a new trial or otherwise disturbing a judgment or order, unless refusal to take such action appears to the Court inconsistent with substantial justice. The Court at every stage of the proceeding will disregard any error or defect in the proceeding that does not affect the substantial rights of the parties.

G-39 Execution

(a) Types of Execution. Court orders allowing execution of a judgment shall consist of two types:

1. Attachment is used to seize property in possession of a judgment debtor.
2. Garnishment is used to seize property or wages in the possession of a person other than the judgment debtor.

(b) Service. Orders of attachment or garnishment shall be served in the same manner as the Summons and Petition, and proof of service shall be filed with the Court.

(c) Requests to Garnish. All requests for garnishment, other than for child support, may be granted at the Court's discretion.

G-41 Injunction/Restraining Order

(a) Temporary Restraining Order (Injunction). A temporary restraining order may be granted without notice to the other party only if it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by verified Petition that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the petitioner before the respondent can be heard.

(b) Duration of Temporary Restraining Order. Every temporary restraining order granted without notice shall be filed immediately with the Court and shall expire by its own terms within such time after entry, not to exceed ten (10) days unless the order is extended for good cause or the other party agrees to extend it. In case a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, a hearing with all parties present will be held as soon as possible. On notice to the party who obtained the temporary restraining order, the other party may appear and move for its dissolution.

(c) Security. The Court may require an applicant for an injunction to provide security, in such sum as the Court deems proper, for the payment of such costs and damages as may be sustained by a party who is found to have been wrongfully enjoined.

(d) Hearing Temporary Restraining Order. Within ten (10) days, the Court will hold a hearing where both sides will be given an opportunity to be heard on whether to issue a longer-term or permanent restraining order (injunction).

(e) Form and Scope of Restraining Order/Injunction; Service. Every order granting an injunction and every restraining order (1) will state the reasons why it was issued; (2) will be specific; (3) will describe in reasonable detail the acts to be restrained or required; and (4) is binding only upon the parties to the action, including their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and any persons in active concert or participation with the parties, so long as the parties receive actual notice of the order by personal service or otherwise.

H-19 Bail – Release Pending Appeal

Every person who has been convicted of an offense and who has filed an appeal or a petition for writ of habeas corpus shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of Subpart H-17, unless the Judge has substantial reason to believe that no conditions of release will reasonably assure the appearance of the accused or that release of the accused is likely to pose a danger to the community, to the accused, or to any other person. 2. If there is more than one private land claim that is provided ingress/egress by the same driveway land assignment, then the following fee will be assessed: The price per square foot of the fair market value of one acre of fee simple land with no improvements in the Pojoaque Valley multiplied by the square feet of the driveway ingress/egress land assignment divided by the number of private land claims being provided ingress/egress by the land assignment.

(k) Agricultural, Commercial, Governmental, and Recreational Assignments. A land assignment may also be made for agricultural, commercial, governmental, or recreational purposes. The Realty Department and the Governor's Office shall be consulted to determine whether the prospective land is eligible for its desired purpose. The applicant must submit a business proposal with an application for a land assignment for agricultural, commercial, governmental, or recreational uses. Such a land assignment shall only be approved if the prospective benefit to the Pueblo is equal to the benefit that the Pueblo would realize if the Pueblo itself developed the proposed land assignment. 7. The Pueblo may access and enter assigned land at any reasonable time so long as reasonable notice has been provided to the assignee and all applicable requirements and policies and procedures of Pueblo Departments have been followed in order to confirm the assignee’s compliance with all applicable requirements.

8. If, at any time during the term of an assignment, the assigned land or any part thereof is taken or condemned under the laws of eminent domain, then the interest of the assignee in the part thereof taken shall cease and terminate.

9. Non-Pueblo owners of private land claims may also apply to the Bureau of Indian Affairs for a right-of-way for driveway ingress/egress pursuant to 25 CFR Part 169 and any future federal rules or regulations that govern grants of rights-of-way across Indian Land in lieu of acquiring a land assignment for such ingress/egress. The same fee calculations as stated in Section (j) of this Subpart will be used to determine fees for a right-of-way for driveway ingress/egress.

2. Living tribal members who would like to transfer land during their lifetime to another tribal member must seek and receive approval from the Tribal Council.

(n) Encumbrances. At no time may a land assignment be encumbered by a mortgage, lien, loan, or in any manner without prior written approval from the Tribal Council.

(o) Possibility of Reverter (Does not apply to driveway ingress/egress land assignments). Assignments not developed or used for the purpose for which assigned within two years after the effective date shall automatically revert back to the Pueblo and may be reassigned. Each Pueblo member receiving a land assignment will be given written notice of this possibility of reverter and will be made aware that a review will take place at the end of the two-year time period to see if the land has been developed or used for the purpose for which it was assigned. The two-year time limit will start to run from the date that the Tribal Council approves of such land assignment.

1. Extension Requests. Any Pueblo member who has been granted a land assignment can make a formal written request through the Realty Department to the Tribal Council for an extension of time beyond the two-year time limit for the purpose of developing or using the land for which it was assigned. The request must be made prior to the expiration of the two-year time limit in order to be considered. Any extension that is granted will only be for a two-year period beyond the original development period.

2. Final Decisions. Once the Tribal Council has reviewed a land assignment situation and has determined that the person to whom the land was assigned did not comply with the requirement for development or use, and they determine that the land has reverted back to the Pueblo, that decision is final.

If the interest is precomputed it may be calculated on the assumption that all scheduled payments will be made when due. For purposes hereof, a year may but need not be a calendar year and may be such period of from three hundred and sixty (360) to three hundred and sixty-six (366) days, including or disregarding leap year, as the Lender may determine.

E. Variable Rates. If the agreement governing the loan so provides, the periodic percentage rate or rates of interest charged and collected in respect of the loan may, if the interest is not precomputed and taken in advance, vary in accordance with a schedule or formula. Such periodic percentage rate or rates may vary from time to time as the rate determined in accordance with such schedule or formula varies and such periodic percentage rate or rates, as so varied, may be made applicable to all or any part of outstanding unpaid amounts of such loan on and after the effective date of such variation.   - a. No Lender shall make more than six (6) rollovers of an existing short-term consumer loan, provided however, this section does not apply to a disclosed payment schedule of an Installment loan that may provide for interest only payments per the terms of the consumer agreement. A Lender may, following not more than the maximum allowable number of rollovers, enter into a workout agreement with the consumer or take such other actions as are lawful to collect any outstanding and unpaid indebtedness.
  - b. No Lender shall make a short-term consumer loan unless such loan is subject to a right of rescission on the part of the individual consumer.

collect from the consumer a reasonable attorney's fee. In addition, following a consumer's default, the Lender may, if the agreement governing, or the bond, note or other evidence of, the loan so provides, recover from the consumer all court, alternative dispute resolution or other collection costs (including, without limitation, fees and charges of collection agencies) actually incurred by the Lender.

K. Application of Other Laws. Any federal law not applicable to Indian Pueblos or state law limiting the rate or amount of interest, discount, points, finance charges, service charges or other charges which may be charged, taken, collected, received or reserved shall not apply to extensions of credit under a Loan operated in accordance with this subpart.

L. No Oral Agreements. A Consumer Financial Services transaction may provide that it represents the entire agreement of the parties and may not be contradicted by evidence of prior, contemporaneous, or subsequent oral agreements of the parties. Such provisions are enforceable and disallow evidence of oral agreements.

M. Enforcement of Licensee's Rights and Remedies. In any proceeding in which a Licensee is a party in interest with respect to any transactions with a consumer, the Licensee's rights and remedies shall be granted based upon prima facie proof and entitlement based upon the terms of the written transaction documents and the payment and business records maintained by the Licensee in the ordinary course of business.

(i) Enforcement.

1. Jurisdiction. Except as provided otherwise in this Code, the Authority shall have jurisdiction over all violations of this Code.

3. Civil Violations. Any Financial Services Licensee who violates or fails to comply with any provision of this Code or who fails or neglects to comply with any final order of the Authority may be charged with a violation and given due process pursuant to Section (d)(10) herein. If the Licensee or Person is found to have committed a violation, he/it may be required to pay a civil fine to the Authority not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each violation. Each day during which any such violation or failure to comply continues may be treated as a separate violation of this Code, but not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). A violation or series of violations related to the same act or omission may be treated as one violation.

- A. A Financial Services Licensee, or Employee Licensee found responsible for a material violation pursuant to this Section may also be subject to revocation of the Licensee's License.
- B. An officer or agent of a business entity who knowingly or recklessly participates in a material violation of this Code may be subject to termination by the Authority.
4. Cumulative Fines. All civil fines accruing under this Code shall be cumulative and a suit for the recovery of one fine shall not bar or affect the recovery of any other fine, or judgment, penalty, forfeiture or damages nor bar the power of a court of competent jurisdiction to enter an order of contempt, nor bar any criminal prosecution against any officer, director, agent, or employee of any Licensee, or any other Person.
5. Purpose of Civil Penalties. The civil fines imposed under this Code are intended to be remedial and not punitive and are designed to compensate the Pueblo for the damage done to the peace, security, economy and general welfare of the Pueblo, and to compensate the Pueblo for costs incurred by the Pueblo in enforcing this Code. The civil fines under this Code are also intended to coerce all people into complying with this Code and Authority regulations and not to punish such people for violation of such laws and regulations.
6. Civil Action for Penalties. In enforcing the civil infraction provisions of this Code, the Authority may proceed, in the name of the Pueblo against a Person for violation of such provision by civil complaint in a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to the provisions of this Code.

1. General Principles. The Pueblo values its customers and intends, at all times, to see that questions, concerns, issues, and/or disputes raised by consumer borrowers are addressed in a fair and orderly manner. However, nothing in this Section shall be construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Pueblo or of the Authority or any of the rights and privileges attendant thereto.
2. Initial Dispute Resolution Procedure.
- A. Consumers who, in the course of their otherwise lawful and proper use of a Licensee's business, have concerns about the operation of any part of the Licensee's operation that pertain to the borrower or who otherwise believe themselves to be aggrieved by some aspect of the operation of any part of the Licensee's business, shall direct their concerns or dispute in the first instance to the management of the Licensee, either orally or in writing.

B. Upon learning about a dispute, a Licensee shall notify the consumer of his or her right to contact the Authority about the dispute and his or her rights to pursue formal dispute resolution under Section (j)(3). The Licensee shall also expediently gather sufficient facts to make a determination about the dispute. The Licensee shall inform the complainant, either orally or in writing, about its initial determination as soon as is reasonably practicable.

C. Payment and servicing disputes from a consumer regarding the conduct of a Financial Services Licensee are also subject to the terms and conditions of the consumer loan agreement entered by and between the parties, which may provide alternative means of dispute resolution for certain terms of individual consumer loan agreements. However, to the extent a consumer's complaint deals with compliance with this Code, the Authority shall have exclusive jurisdiction.

3. Formal Dispute Resolution Procedure.

A. Complainants who have followed the initial dispute resolution procedure described in Section (j)(2) and who are dissatisfied with a Licensee's initial determination, may request review of the initial determination by the Licensee by submitting a request to the Authority in writing no later than ten (10) days after being informed about the initial determination by the Licensee.

B. In reviewing a dispute, the Authority may rely upon the record created by the Licensee or may perform its own investigation if it finds the record inadequate to make a determination. The Authority shall offer the complainant a fair opportunity to be heard regarding the dispute, in person or through telephonic conference, either before or after the Authority makes its own inquiries. A complainant may be represented by legal counsel at the complainant's own expense. The complainant's opportunity to be heard, if granted, shall take place no less than ten (10) days and no more than sixty (60) days after the Authority receives the complainant's written request. In connection with a dispute, the Authority may conduct and issue such review, interviews, sworn statements, depositions, and other discovery as the Authority requests. In each instance, the Licensee, complainant and other interested persons must cooperate with the Authority and provide such information and documents as the Authority deems necessary or advisable to make a determination.

C. After reviewing and/or investigating (as the Authority finds necessary per (j)(3)(B) above), and within thirty (30) days after affording the complainant an opportunity to be heard (if the complainant chooses), the Authority shall make a written decision on the complainant's written request for review, and shall mail a copy of the opinion to the complainant at his/her last known address. The Authority may grant or deny a consumer complaint and grant or deny such relief, if any, as the Authority determines in its sovereign discretion; provided no monetary relief in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) may be granted by the Authority without the express approval of the Tribal Council. The opinion shall inform the complainant that he or she may appeal the Authority's decision as set forth in this Section.

D. A complainant may appeal an Authority opinion by filing a written Petition with the Tribal Court, along with any filing fees, in accordance with Subpart G-10 of the Pueblo of Pojoaque Law and Order Code within twenty (20) days of receiving the Authority's final written decision.

E. The tribal dispute resolution process authorized under this Code is considered by the Pueblo to constitute a petition for redress submitted to a sovereign government, without waiver of sovereign immunity or exclusive jurisdiction, and does not create any binding procedural or substantive rights for a complainant. Any determination by or on behalf of the Pueblo, whether procedural or substantive, shall be made by the Pueblo in its sovereign discretion.

3. Tribal sovereign immunity protects tribal corporations owned by a tribe and created under its own laws, absent an express and unequivocal waiver of immunity by the tribe or Congressional abrogation.
4. Sovereign immunity protects the Pueblo and its limited resources by preventing the Pueblo, a Tribal Corporation, Tribal Officials, or any employee, agent or representative of the Pueblo or of a Tribal Corporation, from being sued without the consent of the Pueblo, so that the Pueblo may provide valuable governmental services and commercial activities for the benefit of the Pueblo, its Tribal Members and the community.
5. The Pueblo and its instrumentalities engage in commercial activities through the ownership or operation of Tribal Corporations. The Pueblo and its Tribal Members benefit from these commercial activities, which promote contact between business invitees and consumers with Persons acting on behalf of a Tribal Corporation. Such contact has the potential to cause Property Damage or Personal Injury in the event of a negligent act or omission of a Tribal Corporation.
6. The Pueblo finds that it is necessary and desirable to waive the sovereign immunity of its Tribal Corporations from time to time in a prudent, limited and express manner, as specified in this Subpart, in order to engage in commercial activities for the benefit of the Pueblo, its Tribal Members and the community.

U-4 Tribal Historic Preservation

(a) Introduction. In an ongoing effort to protect the culturally unique identity of the people of the Pueblo of Pojoaque, the Tribal Council of the Pueblo of Pojoaque Finds it necessary to apply to the Secretary of the Interior to assume New Mexico State Historic Preservation Officer duties. The Pueblo of Pojoaque has developed a Pueblo of Pojoaque Tribal Historic Preservation Program Plan to aid in assuming New Mexico State Historic Preservation Officer duties on Pueblo land. The formation of the Tribal Historic Preservation Office shall supplement the established protection and conservation methods used by the Pueblo of Pojoaque regarding items including, but not limited to, artifacts, remains, and sites located within the exterior boundaries of the Pueblo of Pojoaque, lands held by the United States in trust for the benefit of the Pueblo of Pojoaque, and land owned by the Pueblo of Pojoaque.

(b) Background. Like many Pueblos in the State of New Mexico, the Pueblo of Pojoaque has had a turbulent history of invasion, assimilation, survival and prosperity. Pueblo people have had to discover their identity by looking at the past rather than by living their culture in the present. Pojoaque people feel it is necessary to protect what they know of their heritage as well as to protect their present well-being and future opportunities. The Pueblo has developed several programs over the past few years that demonstrate the Pojoaque people's will to flourish culturally and socially.

The Pueblo of Pojoaque's Tribal Council established the Poeh Cultural Center and Museum in 1988 as the first permanent tribally owned and operated mechanism for cultural preservation and revitalization within the eight Pueblo communities of the northern Rio Grande Valley. The Center emphasizes arts and cultures of all Pueblo People with focus on the Tewa-speaking Pueblos of Nambe, Pojoaque, San Ildefonso, San Juan, Santa Clara and Tesuque; and the Tiwa-speaking Pueblos of Picuris and Taos.

Since its inception, the Poeh Cultural Center and Museum's mission has been to support the future of the Pueblo people by: teaching the arts, collecting great works of art, and promoting public understanding of, and respect for, Pueblo history and culture. After sixteen years, the Center, its education initiative, Poeh Arts, and its Museum have taken that mission to heart and evolved into successful vehicles for artistic expression, both Native American and public education, and successful economic development strategies.

In keeping with the purpose of the Poeh Cultural Center and Museum, the Pueblo of Pojoaque has been active in repatriation and protection of cultural items and sites. A map indicating locations where cultural artifacts have been found on the Pueblo of Pojoaque is on file with the Poeh Cultural Center and Museum and may be disclosed only with the approval of the Executive Director of the Poeh Cultural Center and Museum.

The Pueblo of Pojoaque began to take a proactive lead in preservation in the early 1990s with the Nambe Highway project, which called for a disturbance of tracts of land that ran through Pojoaque Pueblo. In the years that followed, the Pueblo of Pojoaque has worked with federal agencies like the Bureau of Indian Affairs and Department of Energy to develop the land and commerce while maintaining a high standard of respect for land. The Pueblo of Pojoaque hopes to maintain this high standard through the creation of the Pueblo of Pojoaque Tribal Historic Preservation Office.

The Tribal Historic Preservation Office of the Pueblo of Pojoaque, shall hereafter be known as the Pueblo of Pojoaque Tribal Historic Preservation Office ("Preservation Office") and the Tribal Historic Preservation Officer shall be referred to in this Ordinance as "THPO".

(c) Tribal Historic Preservation Goals. The Pueblo of Pojoaque, in cooperation with the U.S. Department of the Interior and the State Historic Preservation Office of New Mexico, proposes to assume all of the duties and responsibilities of the New Mexico State Historic Preservation

By assuming specific duties and responsibilities listed in the Pueblo of Pojoaque Tribal Historic Preservation Program, the Pueblo of Pojoaque intends to strengthen its own cultural and historic preservation program and to protect the cultural and historic interests of the surrounding area and Indian peoples. The board’s duties include providing meaningful advice and guidance to the Tribal Historic Preservation Officer, reviewing appropriate documentation submitted to National Park Service in connection with the Historic Preservation Fund, reviewing National Register nominations according to 36 CFR 60 where that tribe has assumed responsibility for that nomination process, and other appropriate duties as determined by the Executive Director.
  - B. Pueblo Cultural Advisor – The position of Pueblo Cultural Advisory is created to advise the THPO regarding matters of cultural sensitivity to the Pojoaque people. (j) Current Cultural Policy. The Pueblo of Pojoaque does not currently allow permits for ground breaking or archeological digs. Economic development projects, on the other hand, are assessed through the Pueblo of Pojoaque Environment Department using an archeologist under contract from the University of New Mexico or other state agency or a private contractor. If the site proposed for economic development shows no signs of cultural or historic significance as determined by the acting Tribal Historic Preservation Officer, the project is allowed to continue and the Pueblo of Pojoaque grants the necessary real estate agreements for the development project. For example, Right of Way Agreements are granted by the federal government with the consent of the Pueblo of Pojoaque. If the THPO determines that a project threatens cultural or historic artifacts or sites, the THPO or Executive Director shall have the authority in their sole discretion to issue a Stop Work Order, and work on the project shall immediately be terminated. If the project cannot be modified to reduce or mitigate harm to the property, the THPO or Executive Director in their sole discretion has the authority to terminate the project.

(k) Education and Training. The Tribal Historic Preservation Officer and staff of the Preservation Office involved in the management of cultural resources should be adequately trained in historic preservation, compliance requirements and use of the Tribal Historic Preservation Program.

The historic preservation staff shall also be responsible for the development of a tribal public education program on historic preservation.
